

What we do

Self Unlimited maintains a network of support services for people with learning disabilities across the country. We have a skilled and dedicated staff force and over forty years' practical experience in assisting people to live as independently as possible and to realise their full potential.

We work with local authorities and regulatory bodies to foster partnerships to ensure that we maintain the most appropriate individually tailored services to help each person to make informed choices and to take as much control over their own life as possible.

Our partnerships with Housing Associations and other organisations ensure that we can respond quickly and flexibly to meet current and anticipated need.

If you are someone that has a learning disability, then take a look at the services that we are able to offer you, and if you would like to know more, then email or telephone the regional services closest to your home address. We will be more than happy to answer any questions that you may have.
